BACKGROUND

The United States of America, acting through the Millennium Challenge Corporation (“MCC”), and Togo (the “Government”) intends to sign an agreement, called a Compact, pursuant to which MCC would provide a US Dollars grant to the Government for a program to reduce poverty through economic growth in Togo. The Government has established a Compact Development Unit (CDU) to develop this Compact with the MCC.

The Government’s CDF Agreement with MCC requires the Government (including any designee) to ensure that the MCA Entity procures all goods, works, and services to implement the CDF program, in accordance with the MCC Program Procurement Guidelines (“PPG”).

The PPG further requires that the MCA Entity establish and publish an Interim Bid Challenge System (“IBCS”) that provides Offerors the framework to challenge and seek review of the MCA Entity procurement actions and decisions.

This IBCS must be included in all solicitation documents issued by the MCA Entity.

- For a CDF Agreement or Compact, this IBCS remains applicable in procurements launched prior to the Government’s adoption of a formal Bid Challenge System (BCS), which will take place after establishing the Millennium Challenge Account Entity (MCA-Togo) and after the hiring of a Procurement Agent.

This IBCS does not apply to procurements conducted through (a) Shopping methodology, and/or (b) Individual Consultant selection methodology for which the MCA Entity has adopted a modified version of this IBCS, called the IBCS-IS.

This IBCS applies only to Protests during the procurement process, and not to examine or review the implementation or conduct of any contract once awarded.

Rule 1. Protests

Rule 1.1. The MCA Entity shall consider a Protest from any Offeror that claims to have suffered or may suffer loss or injury due to a breach of Procurement Rules by the MCA Entity in the conduct of any procurement.

Rule 1.2. For a Protest to prevail, a Protestor must prove by clear and convincing evidence that: (a) the procurement action (i) violates the Procurement Rules or (ii) is arbitrary or capricious or characterized by an abuse of discretion; and (b) the Protestor has suffered or will suffer loss or injury because of the procurement action taken by the MCA Entity on its Offer.

Rule 1.3. Any Offeror may file a Protest, with the following exceptions:

- (a) Sub-contractors, sub-consultants and members of the general public are not permitted to file a Protest.
- (b) A Protest cannot be used to cure a deficiency in the Offeror's Offer.
- (c) A Protest cannot be used to allege fraud, corruption, or intent of wrongdoing in the procurement process. Such allegations must be filed in accordance with MCC's Policy on Preventing, Detecting, and Remediating Fraud and Corruption in MCC Operations, a copy of which is available on MCC's website: <https://www.mcc.gov/resources/doc/policy-fraud-and-corruption>.

Rule 1.4. The following procurement actions shall not be the subject of a Protest:

- (a) The selection of a procurement methodology (e.g., Shopping, QCBS, QPBS, QBS, etc.).
- (b) The selection of the type of procurement (e.g., goods, works, non-consultant services, or consultant services).
- (c) Technical scores assigned by the bid review or technical evaluation panel, unless the Protestor can demonstrate to the satisfaction of the MCA Entity that determination of such scores is arbitrary or capricious or characterized by an abuse of discretion.
- (d) The decision by the MCA Entity to reject all Offers and/or cancel the procurement.

Rule 1.5. A Protest cannot be filed for/against a procurement action taken by the MCA Entity on the Offer of any other Offeror.
